

Vertical Farming & Packaging Solutions

Efficient Grow Systems

Maximize Every Inch of Space

Space is critical to successful vertical farming operations. Wasted space in a traditional warehouse is an issue for those looking to increase a facilities potential, with their high ceilings and an underutilized vertical cube. Cisco-Eagle offers solutions for your operations that help maximize space and growth potential.

Mezzanines & Space Planning

Customizable solutions that take advantage of every valuable inch of your grow or processing facility

Clean Rooms & Facilities

Maintain strict environmental control in your facility while creating a hygienic environment free from pests.

Storage Systems

Control your inventory without sacrificing security or durability. Multiple sizes and configurations.

Packaging & Processing

Storage, security and packaging are vital to a successful vertical farming operations. Limitations in these areas can lead to less efficient product cultivation and distribution. We offer solutions for each that help improve how you securely produce, store and handle your product at a lower cost without compromising quality.

Security, Storage & Packaging

Secure Storage Equipment

Protect your valuable inventory and equipment with DEA-compliant, secure storage and movement equipment

Packaging Equipment

Optimize the packaging and shipping of your product for complete control of order accuracy and containment.

Distribution Solutions

We create efficient and effective packaging, picking and distribution operations for outlets and dispensaries

Contact Us

Our experts are waiting to help you with any questions or information needed to help your project reach its full potential.

PHONE

888.877.3861

WEB

www.cisco-eagle.com/vertical-farming

EMAIL

24hours@cisco-eagle.com

Exceptional Service by Employee-Owners